DESCRIPTION

The B.F.A. Studio Track prepares students for professional practices and is recommended for students who plan to attend graduate school. The degree provides a solid foundation in techniques and theory in focused areas of competence. Specializations include book arts, ceramics, drawing, (drawing and printmaking combination, drawing and illustration combination), painting, photography, sculpture.

CAREERS

- Urban Designer
- Set Designer
- Museum Artist
- Product Designer
- Art Director
- Silkscreen Artist
- Jewelry Designer
- Layout Artist
- Toy Sculptor
- Furniture Designer
- Painter
- Motion Picture Artist

INFO

B.F.A. students choose one area specialization to master and must complete an Exhibit-Seminar course.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- B.F.A. requires more credit hours
- B.F.A. students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in ART courses to continue in the program.
- B.A. students must maintain the 2.0 GPA average that the university

HIGHLIGHTS

- Students obtain real world experience by partnering with industry professionals to complete classroom projects.
- Students have the opportunity to study various mediums of studio art. This interdisciplinary approach allows for a more well rounded artist.
- Students obtain internships in various creative professions such as the international art world and the entertainment theme park industry.
- Student have access to various studio art facilities and a variety of high end equipment to bring the creative vision to life.